

January General Meeting

Join the members and UAAD and UNOPA for what will surely be a memorable lunch with guest speaker David Landis, as he discusses “Negotiating a Win/Win in the Business Environment.” The meeting is to be held in the Great Plains room in the East Campus Union, and a buffet lunch is available for $9.25 per person. See the flyer inside the UAAD Update for more information.

David Landis is a Nebraska state senator and an award-winning teacher and skilled negotiator in the public arena. Throughout his 24 years in the Unicameral, he has helped pass more than 250 bills. He is currently teaching lawyers and graduate public administrators to negotiate at the University of Nebraska College of Law and the Department of Public Administration. David is married, has two children, and enjoys music, theater and hosting a radio show on the weekends.

UAAD Needs Your Help!

What types of programs interest you?
What professional development opportunities are you looking for?

What issues would you like UAAD to address?

At future UAAD meetings, idea cards will be provided at each table so you can help us make UAAD work for YOU. Please take a few minutes at the next meeting to jot down ideas, comments, issues, etc. Thanks.

A note from the president

Thanks to all of you who came to UAAD’s December program, our annual Graze and Mingle. There was plenty of grazing and mingling, and I hope you all had as much fun as we did. (Personally, I think I’ve grazed almost continuously from this event right through the end of the year.) While the weather didn’t fully cooperate and the Lincoln Southeast Bel Canto musical group was required to cancel, we still had a very enjoyable time. A special thanks go to Constance Walter, Roxane Gay and the College of Engineering & Technology for making the Othmer Hall atrium available for our use.

With each new year comes New Year’s resolutions... and I like to suggest that all UAAD members add to their list “Come to the Monthly UAAD

Meetings” and “Invite a Colleague to Join UAAD”. With that in mind, please write on your calendars now the dates of Jan. 21 and Feb. 11. The January meeting, as you’ll see in this UPDATE, is the joint UAAD/UNOPA annual meeting that this year features State Senator David Landis as the guest presenter. The February date is our annual Founders’ Day meeting at which Chancellor Perlman will be speaking and then presenting this year’s Oldt and Donaldson Awards. Don’t miss these events!

UAAD General Membership Meeting

December 10, 2003, Othmer Hall Atrium

The December meeting was the well-attended Graze and Mingle held in the atrium of Othmer Hall. Unfortunately, the singing group Bel Canto, from Lincoln Southeast was unable to attend due to the snowstorm, but we managed to scrounge up a radio to play Christmas carols as we sampled a unique and plentiful variety of dishes. Thanks to everyone who participated and shared such wonderful food and conversation.

Oldt Award for Exceptional Service and Dedication to UNL. You can find forms for both on the front page of the UAAD Web site: <http://uaad.unl.edu>. Information about each award is included with the nomination forms. You can also read about the awards and see a list of past winners at <http://uaad.unl.edu/committees/awards.htm>.
